Wachusett Regional High School

1401 Main Street
Holden, Mass. 01520
(508) 829-6771
Enrollment: 1427

Above: Spread the Knowledge Not the Virus was a banner put up by Expression Theatre to send a message to help stop AIDS. It definitely sends a message to the world!

Below: There was a new recycling center installed at Wachusett which is open to the teachers in the Wachusett community. Companies deliver any supplies that they do not use. The message sent here is to use what we can and not waste. Save the World! Right: After many months of conflict the condom machine was installed in the bathroom in the nurses office. We hope it sends a clear message to students. Left: A mural of Albert Einstein was painted on one of the walls at Wachusett this year. This painting can send a message to not only the students but to the whole school and community as they see it when they walk down one of the senior hallways. What does it mean to you?

Right: Did your mother teach you to keep your mouth closed or are you sending your own message to the world?

Right: John Santimore, Roger Odoardi, and Eric Wright send their confused message to the world!!
Far right: Principal Mr. Lane dresses up and receives balloons from the student council on Principal's Day.

Above: As the foreign exchange students visit America, they not only learn our culture but they teach us their culture. Given a chance to go to school in a different country allows Anna Bastling, Suzanne Hertelendy, Miriam Kuhul, Celia Lopes, and Sandy Reiner to communicate and understand the different teachings in America. The message that they send is to open up to learning about something new!

For the past four years our class has sent messages to the school and the world. Our junior year we were the first class to have a program that taught and answered our questions about Aids. Recycling has been a growing event at our school which also sends a message. Other events or special messages that have happened at our school was the installation of the condom machine, and the election for State Representative in which our own principal, Mr. Harold Lane Jr., is running for. Mr. Lane is sending a message to the students to learn new and exciting things. Don't let anything keep you back. If you don't succeed try and try again. It doesn't matter if he wins or loses he will always have a place with the Wachusett family which has received his messages to the classes for years. Be yourself! Send your Message to the World!!!

Above: Not all Wachusett students are the same but each one is unique, wild, and original in their own special way. George Salmonsens is one example of a student at Wachusett who sends a message.

1993 Blood Drive Sends a Message

Above: The students and the teachers crowd in the gym waiting for their turn to give blood.
Below: Ouch, that looks like it hurts!

The 20th annual blood drive was held at Wachusett on December 8, 1992. Since 1972, there has been 4,919 units of blood collected at Wachusett. There was about 260 pints of blood donated this December. Many people showed up and had to wait an hour or so before it was their turn. Most of the blood was donated by students and faculty, but quite a few adults from the community showed up after school. The advisor was Mr. Morin and the two coordinators were Karen Kwok and Adam Cederbaum. This blood drive is the largest single day drive in the state.

"Give blood; It's fun, it doesn't hurt, and you get free ice cream." — Karen Kwok

Above: Bill Clinton, sitting in with the band, turned out an impressive version of "Heartbreak Hotel" as Arsenio Hall gestured approvingly in the musical opening of "The Arsenio Hall Show" taping at Paramount Studios in June 1992. Hall said of the presidential hopeful's talent on the saxophone, "It's good to see a Democrat blowing something other than the election."

Above: The air filled with cheers as William Jefferson Clinton was sworn into office as the 42nd president of the United States on January 20, 1993. For the oath-taking, Clinton chose a King James Bible given to him by his grandmother, opened to the Epistle of Paul The Apostle to the Galatians, Chapter 6, Verse 8. During the inaugural ceremony, two of Clinton's favorite performers, Michael Bolton and Kenny G, were ushered into seats above the podium.

Above: In May, Ross Perot was a potential president. Now, he's most likely no more than potential spoiler, but nonetheless a wild card who could reshuffle the deck. As he rejoined the race, Perot said he was running to win.

Above: President Bush appeared on large video screens as he accepted the presidential nomination during the Republican National Convention at the Houston Astrodome on August 20, 1992. Bush and Vice President Dan Quayle roused the GOP delegates to cheers. Bush vowed to go to "every corner of this nation" in the political fight of his life to beat Bill Clinton and "clear out the deadwood" in Congress.

Wachusett High Adopts Mill Swan

Above: Lisa Lemon knows how to brighten a child's day.

A unique partnership has been established in which Wachusett High will adopt Worcester's Mill Swan School. Mill Swan is a K-6 elementary school that qualifies for chapter one services because of its significant number of low income families.

The suburban-urban school partnership that has been established by Mr. Rosen, a science teacher, will broaden the horizons of the adults and students of both schools.

Through a variety of joint educational, cultural and community service activities, students will see that the interests, goals, values, and problems of people of different races, colors, backgrounds, and economic advantages are quite similar.

The activities which have occurred since Oct. 14, 1992 are a trip to the Boston Aquarium which the Wachusett students paid for by collecting money by a fundraiser. Also the young Mill Swan students came to our school during December to see our school presentations of the Broadway play Bye Bye Birdie. They received a tour of our school then both the Wachusett students and the Mill Swan students went to the Worcester Art Museum. Not only do they go on trips together but they communicate by writing letters telling each other about themselves and their lives.

Wachusett students are in the process of designing and painting murals at both schools. This will not only be a message from the students but also it will send a message to our communities. Mr. Rosen has taken the first step to opening the horizon for the Wachusett and Mill Swan students. Send a message through caring for other people and learning new cultures. It is definitely a positive message!!!

Above: Not only did the child have fun on their trip to the New England Aquarium, Beth Morse had fun.

Above: A grim new vision of the world AIDS epidemic predicts that more than 25 million people will have the disease by the end of the decade, and up to 120 million will be infected. Marking losses here in the United States, people signed panels of the AIDS Memorial Quilt in New York. The exhibition is part of a 35-city national tour.

Above: Model and MTV vee-jay Cindy Crawford poses for a photographer outside the pavilion, stopping to greet her fans. The Music Awards were held on September 9, 1992.

Below: Lisa Powell has a lot of T.L.C. to give to this little girl.

Above: That boy looks very happy sitting there with Emily Foerster.
Below: Doug Laidlaw seems to be more excited than the boy does. It shows that the day was for both schools.

Below: Senior class president, Jodi Briggs, sends her message to the world by giving her time and heart to this little girl.

Above: Escorted by more than 1,00 private boats, replicas of Christopher Columbus' ships arrived in the United States on February 15, 1992, as part of the 500th anniversary celebration of his voyage to the New World. From October through December, 1992, the ships were scheduled to stop in the California cities.

Above: On May 24, 1992, President Bush decided that Coast Guard cutters would intercept the Haitians at sea and immediately return them to their country. The Haitians could apply for asylum only through the U.S. Consulate at Port-au-Prince. About 27,000 of them were returned to Haiti.

Above: Three months after the world woke up to one of the worst famines in history, food started to reach hundreds of thousands of Somalis. Estimated dead range from 100,000 to half a million, but no one knows just how many have perished in the Horn of African nation.

Above: Inhabitants of Yugoslavia are confronted daily by the shelling, sniper fire and death of war. They take to the streets during the occasional ceasefire, pushing and shoving, trying to buy bread and other staples necessary to live. The war has led to the creation of dreaded camps, likened to those of Nazi Germany.

Expression Theatre/Boston Globe Competition Send Messages in their own way!

Above: Lindsey Bazinet, Lyn Liseno, and Cassie Perry act out a bit of problems between girls.

Expression Theatre is a club which allows the Wachusett student body to express their talent of acting. Expression Theater deals with issues that teenagers have to face inside as well as outside. Peer pressure is the cause of most of these problems. For the past two years the directors have been Regina Stillings and Linda Salmonsens who have been focusing on Aids and the HIV virus. The Boston Globe Competition play was a series of skits which dealt with not only AIDS but also homophobia and other teenage problems. It lasted about 30 minutes and consisted of six actors and actresses. They placed as winners at the preliminary level and also received awards for Excellence in Script Development and Execution. "We got our message out and had a great time doing something that we love — acting!" commented Andrea Ajemian. They sent a message to Wachusett and to the World! Fabbah!

Left: The seniors of the Boston Globe Competition and Expression Theatre pose for a minute before starting a long night of acting. They are Jessica Lewis, Kiera Garretson, Scott Graves, Andrea Ajemian, Rachel Pitnof, Will Innis, Bill LaBonte, Lisa Lemon, Jeremy Wentworth, and Adrian Ballinger.

Above: Buddies Jeremy Wentworth and Scott Graves, act out together. Should they go to Hollywood and send a message from Wachusett?

Above: U.S. Marines arrived in Somalia to assist in curtailing the wanton, widespread violence and prevent looting of relief shipments.

Above: The troops are patrolling the meanest streets of Monadishu with a soft touch. Children wave or run to the soldiers who have come to help provide a safe passage for food delivery.

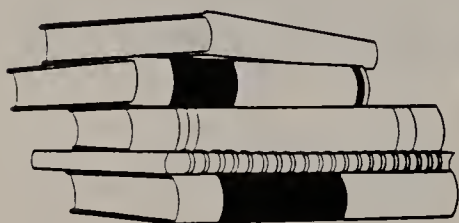

Science Fair

Wachusett Regional High School held its thirty-eighth annual science fair on Friday, February 26th, 1993. There were six seniors, five juniors, six sophomores, and fourteen freshmen who participated in the fair. There was a range from Life Sciences to Physical Science and Engineering. The first place winners were Stephen Richardson, Sonia Szlyk, and Sean Ferris.

Above: The name of Nikke Clemente's presentation was Are You Safe From Ultraviolet Light?

Far Right: Michael Fry did his experiment on Learning to Play Tic Tac Toe.
Right: Stephen Richardson did a design on Implementation and Application of a Robotic Arm-Part four.

Above: Hurricane Andrew struck Southern Florida on August 24, 1992, with wind gusting to 164 mph and a 12-foot tidal surge that flattened many homes, uprooted many trees, flung boats into the streets and wrecked an entire Air Force base.

Above: Fifty-five deaths were directly linked to the hurricane — 41 in Florida, 10 in Louisiana and four in the Bahamas. The hurricane's 54-hour U.S. rampage was the most expensive natural disaster ever in the country. Tent cities were set up in Florida with room for 3,800 people.

Above: Tim Doherty had to create some amusement for himself at the Science Fair. His presentation was on pH of Precipitation and Storm Characteristics.

Above: Hurricane Iniki dealt a direct blow to Kauai, one of the Hawaiian Islands, on September 11, 1992, with winds gusting to 160 mph and torrential rain. It destroyed buildings and damaged many others on the island of more than 50,000 people. Twenty-foot waves crashed over coastal highways and the island lost all power and telephone service before the worst of the storm hit.

Above: U.S. warplanes swept over southern Iraq on January 13, 1993, bombing selected military targets. The goal of the attack was to take out the radar and missile sites in southern Iraq that have threatened the planes patrolling the area. Servicemen chalked "to Saddam with love" on a warplane aboard USS Kitty Hawk just before the air strike.

Seniors

In the past 1 years at Wachusett the Senior Class has learned to bond together and form their own unique family. As the younger generation we have the opportunity to make a difference in this world. Everyone has the chance, you just have to accept the challenge. Send your Message!!

BRYAN
I TALKED WITH BRYAN
JUST THE OTHER DAY . . .
I'M GLAD I GAVE HIM A HUG . . .
WHAT MORE CAN I SAY?

BRYAN WAS MORE THAN A STUDENT
HE WAS MY FRIEND
WE HAD A FRIENDSHIP
I HOPED WOULD NEVER END

I LOVED BRYAN
IN A VERY SPECIAL WAY
I WAS LOOKING FORWARD TO HIS GRADUATION DAY

HE HAD STRUGGLED SO MUCH . . .
TO MAKE HIS WAY . . .
BY GOING TO HIS CLASSES
THROUGHOUT THE LONG
SCHOOL DAY

THEN ON TO WORK
HIS FIRST DEDICATION
TAKING LITTLE TIME
FOR FUN OR RELAXATION

WHETHER ON THE FARM
TENDING TO THE COWS
OR PLOWING IN THE SNOW . . .
THIS WAS THE BRYAN
I HAD COME TO KNOW

HE WAS ALWAYS THERE
TO DO A SPECIAL TASK . . .
TO LEND A HELPING HAND . . .
WITH BRYAN,
I DIDN'T HAVE TO ASK

BRYAN'S STRONG MASCULINE FRAME
WAS SOMEWHAT MISLEADING
FOR INSIDE THIS YOUNG MAN,
HE WAS SENSITIVE AND CARING

BRYAN'S SMILE WAS BEAUTIFUL
IT LET YOU KNOW HE CARED
YET DEEP INSIDE HIM
THERE WERE FEELINGS
HE NEVER SHARED
I WISH I COULD HAVE BROKEN
THROUGH TO HELP HIM EASE THE PAIN
THERE ARE SO MANY
UNANSWERED QUESTIONS
THAT WILL ALWAYS SEEM TO REMAIN

I PRAY BRYAN IS NOW WITH PEACE
AS HE IS LAYED TO REST
FOR IN MY SADDENED HEART
I KNOW BRYAN DESERVES THE BEST

I'M GLAD I TALKED WITH BRYAN
JUST THE OTHER DAY
HE WAS VERY SPECIAL AND
I'LL CERTAINLY MISS HIM . . .
WHAT MORE CAN I SAY?

I LOVE YOU BRYAN . . .

Class of '93 Advisors

Over the past four years our advisors have sent numerous messages to us. When asked about these, the one message that kept popping up was: "Get involved, participate, and meet as many of your classmates as possible." Others included: "Think positively," "Work hard," and "Enjoy your high school years." As we finish our high school years and start walking down yet another path, our advisors have left us with these messages:

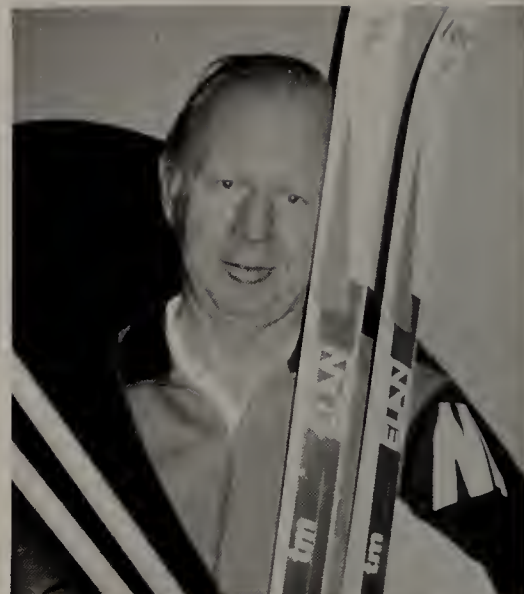

"Don't forget your years at WRHS, but don't dwell on the past — use it to build for the future."

"Enjoy life, be tolerant of other people and be aware and helpful to those less fortunate — protect the environment."

"Stay active, stay involved, continue to participate and experiment."

"Dare to dream and dare to try."

"Never hesitate to tackle the problems you face and the goals that you set. One is only limited by the lack of dreams and self motivation."

Soon after our arrival at WRHS we met Mr. Farley, Mrs. Wreschinsky, Mr. Finneron, Mr. Snelson, Ms. Koki and Mr. Tremblay and Mrs. Myers, collectively known as our advisors. These are the people who we have to thank for helping each of us to become a part of the Wachusett Family, and even more, a part of the Class of 1993. They helped plan and organize events which brought our class together and then encouraged each of us to participate. Because of their enthusiasm and efforts we leave WRHS with many memories — Homecoming and float building (thanks for your house Mr. Farley!), our annual XMas parties, the class relays, the proms, and many more.

For the past four years, our advisors have been there to pull our class together. They have been active in supporting us and this in turn promoted each of us to become an active part of our class. Now as we leave we have to thank these seven people for all of their hard work, efforts, and dedication. Everything that they have done for us is greatly appreciated.

Class of '93 Officers

In May of 1992 the class elected their Senior Class Officers. Those elected were Jodi Briggs as President, Eric Wright as Vice President, Tracy Martellotta as Secretary, and Bill Labonte as Treasurer. Together they have worked, with the help of the Class Advisors, to plan events for our Senior year. These events provided excitement and times for all of us to come together as a group and show our class spirit. When they were asked which of these events brought the class together the most, the officers decided on Homecoming, the Class Relays, and the Proms, of course.

The officers also had some messages to send to others.
Messages to the Class Advisors from the Officers: "You guys have been great the past 4 years, keep up the great work with the future students of Wachusett, and thank you for all your help and encouragement, the past 4 years wouldn't have been so successful without you."
Messages to the Class of '93 from the Officers: "Remember all the fun times we've had together. Set goals for yourselves and try to make your dreams realities, and take the precautions needed to live the best possible life. GOOD LUCK TO YOU ALL!"

Left: Do you think Einstein will influence them?

Done Most For Class:
Eric Wright and Jodi Briggs

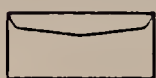

Cutest Dimples:
Lynne Mulry and Brian Wreschinsky

Most Theatrical:
Andrea Ajemian and Adam Cederbaum

Class Flirt:
Jeremy Wentworth and Maria Moller

Best All Around:

Kevin Granahan and Tracy Martellotta

Most Talkative:

Anne Magill and Brad Besse

Once again, we have entered this portion in our yearbook. In past years the layouts have been the same, but this year is different. We wanted to send even more messages to the world, so we decided to take quotes from the people who were picked for each category. What we did was to have each person give their quote to us as they were being photographed. Each had to tell us why they thought they received their own category and comment on it. There are some unique ones, so read on and enjoy.

Eric Wright: I wouldn't have done all I have if I didn't like the people in our class.

Jodi Briggs: What would you do without me?

Lynne Mulry: Just following the tradition Mom!

Brian Wreschinsky: I have dimples.

Andrea Ajemian: It's all an act!!

Adam Cederbaum: I think I got this because I do school plays. I'm happy I got this.

Jeremy Wentworth: She was mine!

Maria Moller: I was his!

Kevin Granahan: Thanks to all my friends — especially Tracy for sitting next to me. It was worth it!!

Tracy Martellotta: I just wanted to be in a picture with Kev.

Anne Magill: Call me! We'll talk.

Brad Besse: For the first time ever, I don't know what to say.

Eric Chevalier: I'd like to thank the class for choosing me, and thanks to my parents for doing a good job.

Laurine Peterson: It's all due to genetics, thanks Mom and Dad.

Superlatives

Nicest Eyes:

Eric Chevalier and Laurine Peterson

Best Dressed:

Aimee Courtemanche and Kevin Granahan

Aimee Courtemanche: My mother wears combat boots.

Kevin Granahan: I owe it all to my good friend and my inspiration, E. Wright.

Alicia Bessette: I sound like a nefarious chipmunk.

Jamie Orciuch: Hahaha, Hahaha . . .

Jen Ekengren: I owe it all to the big people.

Brian Bellrose: How could you tell?

Andrea Ajemian: Give me a W . . .

Sean O'Malley: If I was any more green, I would be Kermit the Frog! It's not e-z being green.

Cindy Benedict: All blondes are not ditzy!

Matt Evans: This goes out to S. Graves who should have got tacky sideburns.

Kerri Enman: Because I trust what people tell me.

Chris Boynton: Words can't describe how I feel.

Heather Rasku: My dad fixed the election.

Neil Carr: You like me, you really like me!

Tim Vandermark: I drink milk!!

Kelly Senior: The only person I have to blame for this is my dad; he's just as tall as I am.

Alicia Bessette: Most endaved, Would have been more appropriate, me thinks.

Scott Graves: I thought I would get Best Butt!

Josh Lepain: I think that I was picked because I've been visible being successful in my years here, and people jump to conclusions on my future.

Karla Ratliff: I hope that I always succeed by bettering the lives of others, not helping myself, and by doing what my own conscience tells me to; not what other people want me to do.

Steve Schwartz: This is the result of listening in the wrong places.

Jen Allaire: It's not that I don't talk, people just don't hear me.

Rich Tedesco: Who me?

Tricia Garabedian: It's not what you say, but how you say it!

Brock Erickson: She's lying; I won!

Kerri Hagglund: I beat Brock at B-bal and now I'm great!

Bridget Depoala: I'd like to thank my assistant Emily F. I couldn't have done it without you.

Jeff McClelland: When I fall asleep, I dream of music. When I go to school, I think of music. When I eat, I think of music. Lord knows what I think about when I play it . . .

Capricorn — The Goat (December 22nd-January 20th)

People born under this sign are social climbers. Their gentleness persuades. The Goat is persistent and ambitious. Besides being quiet and serious, they honor tradition and respect authority. Famous people who share your sign: Martin Luther King and Joan of Arc.

Faculty

Faculty members send their own messages to the students by caring and acknowledging that each student has their own message. A message that the faculty sends is that there may be conflict in the world, but there is always a solution!

March, 1993

Dear Members of the Class of 1993:

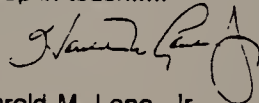

As this letter is written, the Blizzard of '93 is abating and we are, according to a handwritten sign in the cafeteria, some 44 days away from your graduation day. Wachusett is a part of yours, and of my personal history. Most of you have traveled four years on a parallel course with me and your teachers and other Wachusett staff. I hope that you feel the same as I do about this school, and especially about its people—that we are all a part of the "Wachusett family." And, although you will walk across the stage in early June of 1993, and your formal day-to-day affiliation with Wachusett will end, it is my hope that you will take a piece of this place with you and that it will serve you well in the years to come.

As I told you and your parents on eighth grade orientation night more than four years ago, the high school years are significant ones. I hope you used yours wisely and that, in the years to come, you will recognize those who helped you through these formative years.

As you depart high school, my wish for all of you is that you can turn your dreams into reality. You truly can be all that you want to be, although the doing takes effort and perseverance. A famous manufacturer of athletic shoes has a motto, "Just Do It!" and it has the ring of confidence and surety but, as one who speaks from experience knows, nothing is accomplished without much effort and only rarely are things accomplished in a vacuum. We need each other at every stage in life, and we need to honor each other and be open in our praise of those who have helped us along the way.

I expect great things from you in the Class of '93. You have been a joy to be around and your potential to help us in the older generation to heal the world is great. May you experience the success in life that you define and may you always remember your years as a member of the "Wachusett family."

Keep in touch.....

Q: What message did you send to the world when you were a student?

A: "I was too busy just trying to find myself — and therefore was questioning myself much." (Ralph Caouette)

"Be the individual that you are." (Robert Morey)

"Eager, passionate, and confused." (Calvin L. Branche)

"Challenge Authority" (Jim Hedlund)

"Find a way to accommodate my love for music is art with my love of machines and construction. People expect you to be separate persons with the diverse interests and are uncomfortable with the lack of an easy stereotype!" (Glen Hersey)

Q: What message are you sending to the world now?

A: "I have even more questions! Take pride in your work, providing that you have put 'all' into it." (Ralph Caouette)

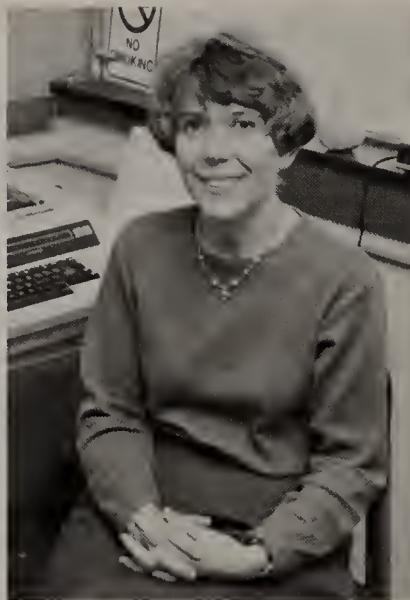

"Be the individual that you are." (Robert Morey)

"Intelligence, freedom, and responsibility are intertwined; you owe a duty to yourself and to others; balancing them is much of what life is all about." (Calvin L. Branche)

"To leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition." — Emerson (Jim Hedlund)

"Pay attention to your spirit. Discover what it is. Don't let 'things' get in the way of your quest." (Glen Hersey)

"Only a life lived for others is a life worthwhile." Albert Einstein (J. Perkins)

Q: What message did you send to the world when you were a student?

A: "Watch out!! Here I come." (Ms. Greene)

"It's important not to judge other people too harshly. I was very critical of others but by my senior year of high school I realized that the peculiarities that people have are what make us individuals. I accepted people for who they were, not who they appeared to be." (Jennifer Keeler)

Q: What message did you send to the world when you were a student?

A: "Buero es saber que los vasos now sirven para beber; lo mal o es que no sabemos para que sirve la sed." (Lisa Fournier)

"World, when are you going to be ready for me???" (Ms. Greene)

"Everyone needs to appreciate cultural diversity. Instead of criticizing and fearing differences among countries we should appreciate them and learn from them and be more tolerant." (Jennifer Keeler)

Messages to the Class of 1993 from the Faculty members

"Never forget to practice random kindness and senseless acts of beauty." (Mr. Deguise)

"Take advantage of every situation or as the old Cape Cod Fishermen say: 'if you don't go out with the outgoing tide the tide will go out without you.'" (Jack Farley)

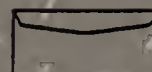

"Success is 10% inspiration and 90% perspiration." (J. Barry Finneron)

"The future isn't much different from the present — only it's longer: GO FOR IT!!!" (Mr. David R. Tarkiainen)

"Define yourself in terms of your strengths and always take a chance at success." (Jaqueline Davison)

"If you find a job that you enjoy you will never work." (Mrs. Beverly Myers)

"We loved this Earth but could not stay (an old saying)" (Janet K. Puccelli)

Q. What message did you send to the world when you were a student?

A. Morality, honesty, and integrity are the foundation of life.

Q. What message are you sending now?

A. Personal integrity is far more important than fadism. Learning is life long — it enhances and builds self-worth.

Girl's Varsity Soccer

Female Booters Score Big In A .500 Season

The Wachusett Regional High School Girl's Varsity Soccer team finished their 1992 season with an 8-8-2 record. During the season, the team had some key victories against defending State Champion Marlboro and North Middlesex. Molly Ahearn, a freshman, ended up tying Jen Langone for leading scorer on the team. The captains of the team were Shannon Carroll and Jen Langone. The team was definitely better than their record indicated. The defense played very well and consisted of Shannon Carroll, Becca Burrows, Meg Schmohl and Karla Ratliff. The offensive and midfield lines also contributed to the team. The power in these lines came from Jen Langone, Molly Ahearn, Julie Locke, Leigh Ann Steele, Deidre Daley, Shelley Kowalczyk and Jacque Master. Goalkeepers Christina Gunther and Tara McRae played outstanding games, posting six shut-outs for the season. The girls, coached by Jeff Larson, had a good time this season, and that's really all that counts in the end! But, wait until next year — Marlboro!

Varsity Football

Down, But Not Out — There's Always Next Year!

The members of the 1992 Wachusett Regional Football Team worked very hard all year long. They displayed great courage and determination each week playing a tough schedule. They played Super Bowl champs and runner-ups, North Middlesex and Fitchburg, as well as the always tough Leominster and Milford squads.

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team had high expectations at the beginning of this year. Coach Jim Gately decided on two Senior captains, Heather Rasku and Christin Muller. Little did the Wachusett fans know that the girls were going to take Burncoat by surprise and win the District Championships. They went on to the state semifinals where they lost to the eventual state champions from Amherst Regional. At the Winter Sports Banquet, Junior Diana Carlson received the MVP award. She also received the T&G and Mid-Wach awards. Another recipient of the Mid-Wach award was Junior Becky Morse. Christin Muller received the Coaches' Award. The girls played great this year and sealed a perfect season with district victories over North Middlesex, Shepard Hill and Burncoat. This was by far the greatest moment the varsity girls' team have experienced in the past few years. Congratulations girls!

Ice Hockey

The Varsity Ice Hockey team noticed a dramatic improvement this season behind the play of talented Freshmen and Sophomores. Posting four wins and a tie, the team is definitely psyched for next season. The team was coached by Dave White, assisted by Karl Bjorn and John White. Tri-captains Pat O'Day, Matt Lane and Roger Odoardi showed great leadership and acted as inspiration for the younger players. Most of the highlights of the season were from Mid-Wach all-star, Junior goalie, Jamie Krikorian. His personal best was a 63-save game against St. Johns. Also, Pete Santom's goal from the red line was something to see. Other outstanding players were Sophomore, Scott McGillicuddy and Freshman, Casey Breeds. Both agree that playing hockey for Wachusett was an excellent time! With this young team, the Mid-Wach League better look out. It's not just "wait 'til next year," but "wait 'til the next three years!"

Boys' Indoor Track

An Outstanding Season of Records Broken!

Head track coach, Brian Wallace, assisted by Skip Knight and Mike Beamer, led the "Mountaineer" males to another great indoor season. Led by tri-captains, Steve Hedlund, Brandon Jolie and Chris Kazarian; many records were broken and all-stars produced. The 4 x 400 relay team of Brandon Jolie, Mike Grauwiler, Tim Rayworth and Joshua LePain were Mid-Wach all-stars, league champions and district champions. Joshua was also named an all-star for his 600 meter championships for the league and districts; and he was also the Wachusett MVP for the season. A district championship was also won by Jeff Carbonneau in the high jump. Another outstanding performer was Junior, Ryan Thompson. Rick Maki won the Coaches' Award for the season. All of these individual accomplishments all added up to a great season for the indoor track team.

Question:

What message is your class sending to the world?

Answers:

"I think that our reputation speaks for itself. The class of '94 is unique and I'm proud to be a part of it." (Tyler Bradshaw, class Vice-President — Left)

"It's okay to drink in school and it's okay to be different. Everyone conform to be a non-conformist." (Megan Hehir — Right)

Question:

What message would you want to send to the world?

Answers:

"The difference between a successful person and others is not a lack of strength, not a lack of knowledge, but lack of will." (Tyler Bradshaw — Left)

Question:

What message is your class sending to the world?

Answer:

"The message our class is sending to the world is that peace is achievable. But it will take a lot of time and patience. The countries of the world need to bond together and stop the violence and hate. We strongly believe that our generation can make this happen." (Jeffrey Heighton; President of the Class of 1995)

"Use Condoms, No violence, and Peace." (Jill Fortin; Right)

Question:

What message would you like to send to the world?

Answer:

"The message that I am sending to the world is that I will help to achieve the goal of peace. I will do what ever I can to bring the people of the world closer and closer together. I strongly believe that this can and will be done." (Jeffrey Heighton; Left)

Class Officers

Lisa Cederbaum, President of the junior class, says to one and all "Make the most of life!" That's just what she does by being a member of the NHS, French Honor Society, Student Advisory Council, and the girls soccer team. "To the class of '94 I've tried to urge people to get involved and not let them watch life pass by them." Listen up and do as she says! Keep up the good work!!

Leigh-Ann Steele is the treasurer and a member of the NHS club, Latin Club, Student Council, and is on the soccer and basketball teams here at Wachusett. Leigh-Ann Steele states that, "The individuals of our class are too diverse to be able to send a message as a whole (to the world). We send many good messages, however, these messages cannot be compared because they are so different!!" She is definitely an asset to her class. When asked what message she would like to send to the world, she responded by saying, "I would like to send the message that we should be more accepting to different people in our class and their ideas." Right on Leigh-Ann!!!

Above: Sheri Deotte is the Class Treasurer for the Class of 1995 and is also involved in Student Council.

Sheri Deotte, Class Treasurer for the Class of 1995, says that she is here to hear people's ideas and to make things better at the school. She goes to class meetings and helps to make decisions such as where to go for class trips. She is involved in sports. She plays Varsity Field Hockey and Junior Varsity Basketball. She also plays J.V. Softball. The message that she would like to send is "to never give up on something you believe in and always believe in yourself. If you're happy show it!"

Andrea Fleming, Secretary of the Class of 1995, says that she is willing to work at setting up good activities for her class. They have set up fundraisers and worked together at Homecoming. She says that her class has spirit and that is all that counts. The message that she would like to send to the world is that "it's not such a bad place if we work hard and work together. If we do this then we'll get through it in the end."

Right: The Vice-President of the freshmen class of '96, Katherine Nobile, would like to spread world peace, in hopes of getting others to do the same. "As a class," Katherine commented, "we have sent a message by helping the less fortunate." Personally, she has not sent a message to the world, but she hopes to someday. Clearly, she is an eager class officer with lots of ideas concerning the world.

Left: Sarah Snow, the secretary of the class of '96, tries her best to tell people that they have to do something about hunger in our world and help the needy. She helps to make decisions such as where their class trip is going to be. She is athletic. She's on the cheerleading squad and is on the softball team. The message that she would like to send to the world is that "Our generation is a great group of people and when we reach adulthood we will help solve the problems in the world."

Right: The Yearbook Staff and Class of '93 owe a great big thank you to these ladies, Michelle Eaton, Denise LeClair and Pam Wesolowski. Without their typing skills in our time of need, there would be no senior write-ups in the book. Thank you girls!

The "Mountaineer" — 1993 Staff

It seems every year when I do these pages, I always say that this has been the best staff ever, and every year I do mean it! But, this year, it's the best set of editors ever — Meri and Jen. Without you, this book would have been nothing. You have been a vital part of three yearbooks since your Sophomore year, you learned the ropes, and were able to pass this knowledge on to your staff this year. You were involved in all sections of the book, and if you didn't do the section, you were there helping the staffer that needed a hand. You were particularly wonderful to an advisor that was a little "stressed" this year; and I will hold you up as models for other editors for years to come (maybe!) Your assistance with accreditation and training next year's staff went far beyond anything I've ever expected from editors. All I can say is that this book had better win an award!

Additional thanks go to Tracey Arterton and Marie Mercadante, who were always there helping and working in their second home — the Yearbook Office. Thanks for all your help, Amy Hurtubise, Tracy Martellotta, Bethany Earls, Regina Wolfrey, and Sue Phelps. Adam, you did a great job with the Sports section. Thanks to all our senior write-up typists: Kim Bourassa, Jodie Briggs, Jen Contonio, Lynne Mulry, Amy Loosemore, Michelle Eaton, Denise LeClair and Pam Wesolowski. You were all most appreciated!

The Year in Review

There is a message in every candid. The senior class has presented their own original fashions, styles, and especially their statements and opinions. Their messages are clearly sent to the world through their actions.

Above: Lisa Powell performs a fiery dance as Spanish Rose.

This year's fall school musical, "Bye Bye Birdie," was presented on December 4, 5, and 6. This performance was directed by Carolyn McClure and produced by Cynthia Childs and David McClure. Music was directed by Jason Lord. Also, stage manager, Greg Childs, and assistant stage manager, David Blehar, did an outstanding job marking everything behind the scenes run smoothly.

Conrad Birdie (Ryan Curtis), a famous rock star, is being drafted into the army. As a promotional event he has Albert Peterson (Adam Cederbaum) write a song entitled "One Last Kiss." Then, Conrad Birdie is to kiss one of the teenage members of his fan club, Kim Macafee (Lori Johnson). Always by Albert's side were his soon to be fiancée and secretary Rosie Alvarez (Lisa Powell) and his domineering mother Mrs. Peterson (Andrea Ajemian). Hugo Peabody (Adrian Ballenger), Kim's boyfriend, adds conflict to the play by being jealous of Kim kissing Conrad Birdie the day after he pins her. The teenage fan club is very excited about Birdie's visit. This excitement was portrayed beautifully by Ursula, (Marlene Perry) the leader of the fan club. "Bye Bye Birdie" was a very successful performance and a highlight of the school year. Congratulations to the entire cast.

On the behalf of the entire cast, we would like to thank Mrs. McClure for all her dedication and hard work as our director. She has been part of the Wachusett family for many years and all cast members should feel honored to have been part of her last performance. She will be greatly missed in the years to come.

Right: "Don't just stand there, help me out!" So says Andrea Ajemian (Mrs. Peterson) to Adam Cederbaum, her stage son, Albert Peterson.

Lip Sync — March 19, 1993

On March 19, 1993 the WRHS lip sync was held in the auditorium. This event, which was sponsored by the Sophomore and Senior classes, was a big success. The night consisted of a variety of acts. Adam Cederbaum, Fatima Elmi, Pat Tinsley, Adrian Ballinger, Joe Tricomi, Ryan Curtis, Kate Singleton, and Lisa Powell performed "I Will Follow Him." Then there was a three-some of daring freshmen, Amy Greene, Charity Donges, and Sonya Campbell, who lip synced to En Vogue. Sean O'Malley, Eric Wright, Brendan Perry, Andrew Daly, Brian Gorman and Roger Odoardi got the crowd going with "Rump Shaker." Scott Graves, Greg Brunell, Matt Evans, Jon Santimore and Mike Maloney, decided to be original and made up their own debut song. Then Chris Kazarian stepped up with his usual eccentricity and performed a very long variety. Next up was Brendan Prescott, Christian Powers and Sean O'Morrison who brought Milli Vanilli back to the scene. Wachusett's own Village People, Lisa Cederbaum, Sara Zelesky, Kristin Collins, Meg Rayla, Sarah Dado, and Shannon Berryhill, then lip synced to "YMCA." Finally, Jess Tienhaara, Andrea Ajamian, Kiera Garretson, and Tracy Martellotta converted to rapper girls for the night to perform "Let's Talk About Sex."

The night provided excitement and fun for everyone. And for those who couldn't make it, the winners were: first place — The Village People, second place — "Let's Talk About Sex," and third place — "I Will Follow Him."

Above: Rapper girls — Andrea Ajemian, Kiera Garretson, Tracy Martellotta, and Jessica Tienharra, strike a pose after the lip sync.

Class Relays 1993

On Wednesday, May 12, 1993, everyone showed their school spirit at the annual Wachusett Class Relay Races. The sun was shining, the music was playing, and the students were cheering their classmates on to victory. The sophomore class topped them all by coming in first place. The juniors and freshmen followed behind with second and third place. Due to certain unfortunate conditions, the senior class was disqualified.

Above: As everyone watches, senior Christin Muller takes over after Jeremy Wentworth passes off to her. What's that look on your face for Christin?!

Above: There is Brian Wreschinsky doing his best to lead the senior class to victory. Way to go Brian!

The Evaluation Committee Visits Wachusett

The Evaluation Committee arrived at Wachusett on Sunday, March 14, 1993. They stayed until March 17. Wachusett has been preparing for this for two years. All of the faculty members were involved in this process. They were each on two committees, one learning and one standard. There were also some people from the community and also some seniors on the committee. We'll have to wait for the results until the end of June.

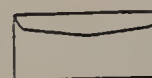

The members of this committee came from Massachusetts, Connecticut, and New Hampshire. They were each appointed to a certain learning area. The members of the visiting committee are pictured to the right: Mr. Robert Chiappetta, Mr. Edwards George, Mr. Peter Pollock, Ms. Marie Buchanan, Mr. David Uminski, Ms. Diane Salek, Mr. Ron Miller, Mr. Robert Pepka, Mr. Nelson King, Mr. Michael Hamilton, and Ms. Julian O'Conner.

Russia's dismal economy kept President Boris Yeltsin off balance as the new democracy struggled to adopt capitalism.

Change was the worldwide watchword of 1993. The mantle of power in America changed generations as well as parties. • Baby-boomer/Democrat Bill Clinton defeated WWII-generation/Republican George Bush. • Inspired by a desire for change and by the plain-talking Independent Texas billionaire candidate H. Ross Perot, voters came out in the largest numbers on record to give a landslide win to the new moderate Democrats. • America's youth voted for change: 18-24 year olds voted 47% for Clinton, 31% for Bush, 22% for Perot. • Teens' most important issues: AIDS, the environment, jobs, education. • 1993 also saw minorities coming into power in the U.S. as over 90 congressional seats went to female, African-American, or Hispanic electees. • This was the first year of the European Unification, the economic stabilization plan to remove tariffs and unify European currency. • Two years after the Gulf War, the U.S. led allied air raids against Iraq as they violated the cease-fire, U.N. resolutions. • French-speaking Quebec lost another bid for independence from Canada. • Too much unsafe sex among heterosexuals prompted world health officials to predict a huge AIDS explosion in the coming year. • Drought plagued the east African country of Somalia, while its bloody civil war prompted a relief aid effort from the U.N. aided by the U.S. Marines. • In Britain, Windsor Castle burned, Queen Elizabeth II agreed to pay taxes, while Prince Charles and Princess Diana publicly separated. • Space satellite Cosmic Background Explorer transmitted evidence in support of the Big Bang theory of the galaxies. • Argentina unearthed Eoraptor, a primitive ancestor of Tyrannosaurus Rex. • Rigoberta Menchu, a Quiche Indian of Guatemala, received the Nobel Prize for Peace.

Campaign '92: Debates, half-hour commercials, sound-bites, mud slinging. GOP George Bush and upstart Independent H. Ross Perot stepped aside as Democrat Bill Clinton entered the White House.

Been there, done that

The hosts talked and the rest of us watched Oprah Winfrey, Sally Jessy Raphael, and Geraldo Rivera to compare lifestyles with their weird and wonderful guests.

The TV show "Northern Exposure" influenced fashion trends. The characters from Cicely, Alaska have made plaid shirts, baggy jeans, and boots fashionable, as well as "Chris" long hair and "Maggie" pixie-cuts.

Shoppin' large: The Mall of America made world news as the second biggest mall on earth with 4.2 million square feet of shops.

Cindy Crawford's form appeared on Pepsi ads, MTV, and an exercise video.

Everywhere, feet flew across the pavement on in-line skates.

It was a year of "alternative-as-mainstream" in lifestyles. • The biker/loner/renege look of jeans and black leather was everywhere. • Designer Ralph Lauren, known for using white preppy models in his advertising, switched to models of color to reflect the diversity of the latest fashion generation. • With step aerobics still hot, Reebok launched City Jam dance aerobics based on the hip hop dance moves of Hammer and Bobby Brown. • Low-fat dieting caught on across the country. A record number of eaters turned vegetarian. • Teens spent their money on Nike sneakers, Doc Marten shoes, X baseball caps, nose rings, Cross Colours clothing, Guess jeans, and Gap duds. • 13-18 year olds spent an average of $100 and saved $90 monthly. • Cola makers pitched new "clear" soft drinks. • Snowboarding and skateboarding fans grew in numbers. • Gameboy and its imitators stayed hot. Nintendo and Sega games spawned TV cartoon spin-offs. • Thousands more dared to participate in bungee jumping. • Smokers kicked the habit using a new nicotine skin patch. • Hair trend among guys: shoulder length and wavy. Hair trend among girls: long and straight. • The U.S. Postmaster distributed the Elvis Presley stamp. • A new form of social drinking arrived: smart bars served brain nutrient "smart drinks." • Cars that became collector classics: 1970 Dodge Challenger R/T SE, 1973 Triumph TR-6, 1978 Pontiac Trans Am, 1972 Chevrolet El Camino. • Marvel Comics killed off Superman so that the man of steel could be resurrected at a future date for better sales.

Teens were addicted to the word "like," and used it everywhere in conversation as a preposition, suffix, and intensifier: "She is, like, so immature." "I was like, 'You are so gross.'" "He's so piglike." "Your mother is, like, going to kill you." Once you start, like, using it, it's a hard habit to break.

Disney Studio's Aladdin, with Robin Williams as the voice of the Genie, captivated the box office.

and live we watched it, read it, heard it

Rappers Ice T and Ice Cube got closer to movie stardom in the action thriller Trespass.

Grunge rock's Kurt Cobain of Nirvana and Courtney Love of Hole named their first baby Frances Bean. • Fans of country music line-danced to Billy Ray Cyrus's "Achy Breaky Heart." • The raving British beat "techno" invaded U.S. shores. • The Toronto Blue Jays won the World Series. • Basketball stars Larry Bird and Magic Johnson retired. • Football stars Joe Montana and Boomer Esiason modeled Hanes underwear. • The Dallas Cowboys defeated the Buffalo Bills in the Super Bowl. • Monica Seles, Michael Chang, Steffi Graf, Gabrielle Sabatini ranked among the highest earning tennis stars. • Hockey's Mario Lemieux and baseball's Barry Bonds signed $40-million-plus multi-year contracts. • New jack culture hit Hollywood via directors like John Singleton and Mario Van Peebles. • Kid's hit cartoon "The Ren & Stimpy Show" crossed over to adult hit. • Teens' top music choices: gangster rappers Ice T and Ice Cube, hip hoppers Kriss Kross, the likes of LL Cool J, TLC, Marky Mark and the Funky Bunch. Not to be outdone by pop star Neneh Cherry, rockers Pearl Jam, R.E.M., The Lemonheads, Nirvana, Morrissey, Ministry, Red Hot Chili Peppers, and U2. • Teens were chompin' popcorn at hit movies Aladdin, Home Alone 2, A Few Good Men, and Trespass. • Donna Tartt, 28-year-old writer, stole the book news headlines with a $450,000 advance on her first book "The Secret History." • Teens tuned to MTV for Cindy Crawford, Ed Lover, and Pauly Shore. • The younger generation ruled the tube as media and merchandisers pandered to their new economic power with teen-life shows "Beverly Hills 90210" with Luke Perry, and its spin-offs "The Heights" and "Melrose Place" with Andrew Shue.

Rap and country sounds jammed the airwaves with hit after hit. Garth Brooks rode high in the saddle as country's biggest star; Queen Latifah reigned as the heart and soul of rap.

Senior Banquet — April 1, 1993

The Senior Banquet which was held on April 1, 1993 drew an enormous amount of seniors for one of the last times of being together. Seth Thomas, from Crickets Restaurant and a number of area contributors sponsored a "Salute to Youth" night which included a D.J., a spectacular meal, and just a good time for the Class of '93. As you can tell by the pictures we thank everyone who was involved. We had a great time. A message sent from the Senior Banquet!!

The Last Day for the Senior Class

These pictures represent the final day for the class of '93. Our years at Wachusett have ended and were celebrated, while realizing that we were entering the world that everyone has tried to prepare us for. The traditional Freshmen Buff Day welcomed us four years ago; and as a class, we want to pass it down to yet another graduating class. Remember all the good times! People may grow apart from one another, but our memories will always be with us. Good luck to the Class of '93!!!

Left: Does anyone know what message the seniors are sending with this decorative creation for their last day? Above: Bursting with class spirit on the last day of school, seniors Pete Singley, Luc Fauteux, and John Cadwallader, posed as the "Toga Men", said the class with shouts of excitement.

These are the times to remember!!!

The Senior Prom was held on Friday, May 21 at the Sheraton in Leominster. The Prom theme was Oh What a Night. The colors were blue and white. Nichole Laramée wrote a dedication to the seniors.

"We've been through the best and the worst of times, We've had our fun and shared our sorrows The memories of yesterday and today will be the memories of tomorrow. May the brightest star in the sky be our guiding light. To make our futures what we want them to be beautiful and bright. The tears of sadness and the tears of happiness, those are the tears we shed. To give us the love and support we need for the long road ahead. So I dedicate this poem to you, the class of 1993, and hope you make the right decision, for life and eternity."

Right: Mr. Lane enjoys his day off with a little baseball. He was the star pitcher of the day, just like he's been the star principal at Wachusett. We will all miss him.

Above: Jeremy Wentworth and Brad Besse bring their strength to the front of the line hoping to bring their team to a victory.

The Senior Class Trip was on Friday, May 28. It was at the Frank Davis Resort in Moodus, Connecticut. There was an Olympic-size pool with a low and high diving board. There were tennis courts for those who wanted to play and there were basketball courts. Many people enjoyed the paddle boats and canoe rides in the lake. Jessica Tienhaara, Andrea Ajemian, and Brock Erickson won the dance contest. It was a great day for the seniors to get together for the last time.

Graduation — June 5, 1993

The sun beamed on the crowd before the class of '93 marched onto the well used football field. Graduation seemed to have finally arrived and so did the rain as we started to move into the spotlight of the day. Speeches were given by our class members: Jodi Briggs, Lindsay Bennet, Tracy Martellotta, Adam Cederbaum, Karla Ratliff, as well as Harold Lane Jr., John Ranta, and Robert Conn. Graduation sent the message to "Hold on to your dreams, and in our hearts we will remain forever young."

Right: The rain seemed to follow the class of '93 during their graduation ceremony.

WACHUSETT SENDS A MESSAGE . . .

We asked a group of faculty members to comment about Mr. Lane. The comments are as follows:

"Wherever you go your experience, forthrightness and genuine interest will make you as memorable in your new endeavor as it has been here at Wachusett." Melanie Donegan

"Thanks for many years of friendship, caring and support. May God bless." Barbara Wreschinsky

"Best of luck, Mr. Lane. You've been a wonderful boss and friend. It won't be the same without you. I'll truly miss you!!" Donna Laramie

"The time you have is what you make of it . . . Enjoy!" Anne Finkelstein

"Remembering your leadership during student tragedies." Glen Hersey

"Best Wishes to a man who has always will bleed green for Wachusett Regional!!" Gary Mitchell

"Exercise, Exercise with Love." Jim Hedlund

"Mr. Lane you're my hero. You are a perfect leader. You understand students and support teachers. You bleed green! There is a feeling of family here at Wachusett and you are the PaPa" Wendy Diamantopoulos

"In 1961 as a student teacher I went to West Boylston High to observe a history class. The young history teacher was you. In 1991, 30 years later in the back of my own history class to observe me was you. Each of us fell asleep in the back of the room as we watched the other teach. What goes around comes around!" Dave Tarkiainen

"I think I've said enough" Horatio Nicastro

"You will be missed! Good Luck!" Debbie Ashford

"I'll miss Thursday mornings!" Roy Baer

"I will miss you but I understand." Allison Komenda

"Best of Luck. We will see if your education was worth anything!" Barry Finneron

"Best Wishes. You have been one of the best principals that I have worked for. Wachusett will not be the same without you." Grace Reidy

"You are the best principal that I have ever worked for" Michele Edelsberg

"Your involvement in all the extra activities has been noticed by faculty and the students. You have always done overtime. You got involved in everything. Your character will be hard to replace! Best of Luck!" Denise Aldrich

"It has been a wonderful experience for me to work for you. I greatly appreciate your understanding and wish you the best of luck in Boston and everything you attempt in the future." Skip Knight

Blizzards of '92 and '93

The Blizzard of '92 hit us on December 11 and 12. There were many power outages, fallen tree limbs, and scores of accidents caused by this blizzard. Paxton and Holden opened shelters for residents who lost power for a long period of time. Wachusett was closed for three days.

The Blizzard of '93 started on Saturday March 12 and lasted throughout Sunday. We were prepared for this storm. This brought each town up to 20 inches of snow. Every town except for Sterling met new records for amounts of snow. When we sang Let It Snow, our message was heard and was responded to. We just hope it's all over with!

Above: Celia Lopes, Jen Martin, and Erin Burke are just so happy that it stopped snowing. It's just so cold out! Below: Meri Viano stands on a snow pile waiting to throw a snow ball at the next person who comes by.

Above: Is it still snowing, Stacey Coyle, Christie Guberski, Pamela Fraser, and Cindy Bell, or is the wind blowing? Left: Amber Carlson, Ryan Rich, Sandy Reiner, Erin Burke, Tammy Provencal, and Krista Zagajeski had fun climbing the snow pile. I hope they don't fall in!

Above: Chris Keenen, Brian Gorman, and Brendan Perry might be on the golf team but they haven't sent a message yet!

Above: A devoted student at Wachusett is the message Melinda Sullivan sends to the world and her brother.

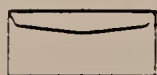

Above: Carolyn Crowe, Tim Rayworth, Jen Allaire, and Kevin Trainor bust a move and a message to the class of 93 while at the Senior Banquet.

Left and Right: Carol Carlson, Joe Maki, Jason Dore, Christine Scarsella, Tracy Greenfield and John McCormick send their message to the world, along with Mr. Smith, by recycling and making the world a better place.

Above: Shelly Kowalczyk, Becca Burrows, Chris Gunther, and Meg Schmol stick together until the very end!

During our last year we have come together and sent messages to our class and each other. Now we must enter the world. Our past will be remembered and the future must begin. The good times and the bad times at Wachusett has allowed each and everyone of us to grow and learn from what we have been taught. Our own unique qualities have emerged, hopefully, and have permitted us to appreciate each other for who we are. The class of '93 has definitely added a positive quality to Wachusett. Best Wishes is sent to each of you, the class of '93, which enters the world with a message of their own!!!

Above: Kevin Granahan, What message are you sending? It's definitely to the world!!

A WORLD of Thanks!

The staff of the Mountaineer yearbook realizes that without the help of a large number of people, we wouldn't exist. So we would like to take the time and space now to say "thanks" to:

Mr. Arnie Lohmann, our company representative from Jostens/Hunter Publishing. Thanks for your advice, encouragement, and help in meeting our deadlines.

Mr. Ken Parker of Photography By Kenneth Parker. A true professional, you never let the book down and got us through many deadlines with time to spare. Also, you gave us excellent material to work with!

Elizabeth and Marie (and Tina, too!) at Photography By Kenneth Parker. We really appreciated your efforts in helping to organize and "clean up" the senior section.

Mrs. Donna Laramée, our financial advisor. We did it, we have the money to pay for another book! Thank you for all your time and devotion to the yearbook.

Mr. Greg Smith and the "Machine Men" who helped load the machines, and assist Mrs. Laramée.

All the administration, faculty and staff who helped in some way the production of this book. Whether you filled out a form, submitted a club roster, posed for a picture, or worse yet, had one of us in class; we appreciated your efforts to help us produce something that will live on after we're gone!

Thanks!

Mrs. Laverdiere, Advisor
Meri Viano, Co-Editor
Jen Martin, Co-Editor

The Mountaineer is an annual publication by the Yearbook Staff of Wachusett Regional High School, 1401 Main Street, Holden, Massachusetts 01520. The towns served by the high school are Holden, Paxton, Princeton, Rutland and Sterling. The book was distributed to the Class of 1993 in mid-August of 1993 at a class barbecue.

The book was printed in Winston-Salem, North Carolina at the Jostens/Hunter Publishing Division. The press run was 550 copies. The staff was assisted in the design of the cover, endsheets, division and title pages by Rick Brooks of the Creative Resource Department of Jostens, and by our company representative, Arnie Lohmann. Much of the pre-planning of the cover, theme, etc. . . . was done as part of an in-house workshop run in August of 1992.

Our cover is a school-designed lithograph. The base material cover is white (#478) with the addition of numerous mix-to-match inks. The litho-process cover has film lamination for protection. The front cover also has foil printing for the 1993, this is spangle foil (#337). The trim size is 8½ by 11, and is Smythe-sewn. It is wrapped around 120-point binder's board. The program our book follows is the Majestic.

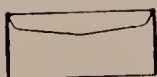

The endsheets for the book are different for front and back. Both are from the Transicolor paper line and are medium blue (#292) with black ink printed on the front.

The paper used throughout the book was 80-pound dull, printed with standard black ink. Eight pages were printed using the standard four-color process. This color must be submitted five months prior to publication to be most cost-effective. Original artwork, submitted by students, was finished by Jostens/Hunter. Four different type styles were used throughout the book. The primary type style was #141 (Palatino). Other type styles were used throughout the book for variety, and according to the needs of the page editor.

A tip-in magazine of current trends was inserted into the book between pages. This magazine fit the theme for this year, and was purchased at $0.60 per copy from Jostens Publishing Company.

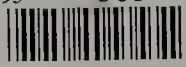

The approximate cost of printing this book is $25,000.00. The figure includes publishing costs, freight charges, shipping of materials to North Carolina, candid photography expenses, and other supplies. The per copy cost of the book is $25.00, payable in advance. Other monies are raised through an assessment to the Senior Class, a parent ad and sponsor/patron solicitation, and the proceeds from three soda machines in the school. The book contains no commercial advertising; and its 256 pages represent the entire student population.

Candid photographs in the book were taken by students (both on and off the staff). Senior portraits were taken by Ken Parker and his associates at Photography By Kenneth Parker of Holden, the designated official yearbook photographer. Other professional photographers did some of the senior portraits. Athletics (both team and candid), faculty formals, clubs and organizations, underclassmen (group photos) and other major school events were photographed at no charge to the Yearbook by Photography By Kenneth Parker. In addition, the studio provided film and black-and-white developing at no additional cost.
